

“Francis, go and rebuild my Church, which you can see has fallen into ruin.”

Catholic Australians join their brethren worldwide in thanking God for the election of Pope Francis.

We greet the 266th Successor of St. Peter with great expectation! For just as St. Francis of Assisi went forth at the command of Christ to rebuild the spiritual foundations of His Church, so Pope Francis has already set out to rejuvenate the faith of world-weary prelates and priests who have lost their way.

Exhorting his cardinals assembled in the Sistine Chapel, the Vicar of Christ declared:

“When we do not confess Jesus Christ, we confess the worldliness of the devil.
When we confess a Christ without the Cross ... we are worldly, we are bishops, priests, cardinals, popes, but not disciples of the Lord!”

TO INCREASE AND SUSTAIN THEIR PRAYERFUL SUPPORT OF THE HOLY FATHER IN HIS ARDUOUS TASK, – of rebuilding the spiritual and moral foundations required to glorify God and save souls –

THE CATHOLIC FAITHFUL ARE URGED TO READ

Death of a Catholic Parish

A gripping case-study, it will deepen, broaden and enrich the faith of the reader:

- by explaining the nature, causes and effects of our “genuine crisis” (John Paul II)
- by distinguishing the Faith of Our Fathers from the counterfeit faith of “Liberal Catholics”
- by arming readers with the knowledge and desire to defend and promote their Holy Faith!

As relevant today as when first published twenty years ago,
